10. [REDACTED] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and gave him a copy of the Director's letter to Representative Nedzi and briefed him on my conversations with Nedzi. I also briefed him on the Soviet Kara Class Cruiser modifications. I received from Slatinshek a copy of a letter from Representative Angelo Roncallo (R., N.Y.), together with the "Aviation Week and Space Technology" article of 5 November by Cecil Brownlow, referenced in Roncallo's letter. Slatinshek told me he had talked briefly with [REDACTED] about this item.

I also discussed with him proposed Agency legislation amending the CIARDS to provide a cost of living increment upon retirement, and told Slatinshek I expected to deliver the package to him tomorrow.

[REDACTED] who is under consideration for a staff position in the Committee. I gave him the same information given Slatinshek earlier at the time of [REDACTED] was filed with the Committee. With regard to the Intelligence Subcommittee Watergate report, Price feels that the Committee conducted the most extensive hearings of any of the hearings with regard to CIA involvement and that on balance, the report is a good one. He looks forward to further hearings on Agency operations, which probably will not get underway until after the first of the year.
